

Minutes of the General meeting of SA Superannuants

Held on 26 November 2018

At Pilgrim Centre 12 Flinders St Adelaide

The meeting began at 1pm

1. The President welcomed 50 members to the final meeting of the year. We will adjourn for afternoon tea at 2.15pm and be away by 2.30 because all the food will be gone.

2. Action by the Committee since the last General Meeting

- 2.1 This morning the committee played host to two SCOA members – Alan Raftery and James Vanderberg SCOA after nearly 100 years is winding up in June 2019 and is looking for an organisation to recommend to members. We spent one hour talking about possibilities. We have considerable common ground. We have formed a working party – Peter Fleming Christine Venning, Ray Hickman, Max Jahn and Michael Evans along with Alan Raftery and James Vanderberg/ We are meeting on 10 December to look at constitutional changes
- 2.2 The Wilderness Society is unable to attend this afternoon so Ray Hickman will be speaking about his involvement in the Gammon Ranges.
- 2.3 We met with The Treasurer Rob Lucas and the President asked Ray Hickman to report. The Treasurer agreed to meet with us quite quickly after our request. We want members to pay less tax. Mr Lucas said he was not paying for an actuarial review which is a bad sign. We will have another meeting in the New Year
The President thanked Ray for his report.
- 2.4 The President said the same group will also meet with Stephen Mullighan the Shadow Treasurer.
- 2.5 Alan Raftery spoke about the Qantas Club. Details will be in the next newsletter ad on our website.

3. Guest Speaker

Ian Beckingham introduced Dr Ray Hickman to give a talk about his involvement with Vulkathunha = the Gammon Ranges National Park.

After Ray's most interesting illustrated talk members adjourned for afternoon tea.

The meeting closed at 2.15pm
