

Minutes of the General meeting held on 30 April 2018

at Pilgrim Centre

12 Flinders Street Adelaide

The meeting opened at 1pm.

1. Welcome The President welcomed about 40 members to the meeting. He mentioned he had spent 4 days in the new RAH. He said treatment and food and accommodation were terrific.

2. Action by the Committee since the last General meeting.

2.1 At today's committee meeting there was a long discussion about membership. In the next newsletter the President has written an article about the need to recruit new members and new committee members. We have the smallest committee in the history of the organisation. The President said we need to access databases such as Super SA, PSA and AEU. We need to talk to those organisations

2.2 Max Jahn is the newsletter coordinator. Ray Hickman has agreed to help him.

2.3 We are going to develop a manual for committee members.

2.4 We also discussed speaker arrangements for the remainder of the year.

2.5 The website has been updated as some articles have passed their use by date.

2.6 In the September newsletter will be article about how you can help the organisation without being on the committee.

3. Guest Speaker

Ian Beckingham introduced Rajina Dillon from Amnesty International who spoke about how individuals can assist those imprisoned for their beliefs. At the ends of her talk Ian presented her with a cheque.

The meeting ended at 2pm.
